

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

presents

Everything You Need to Know About Common Unlawful Detainers

Program Description

Evictions are serious. Unlawful Detainer procedures are strictly enforced by the Courts. Advocates for Landlords and Tenants must know the latest information to assure the process runs smoothly for all parties.

This lunch program reviews the latest changes to California's Unlawful Detainer law - including the issues of Notice and Timing - that frequently trip-up litigants.

Speaker

Hon. Erin Guy Castillo, Judge, San Joaquin County Superior Court - Hon. Guy Castillo hears Unlawful Detainer actions brought by property owners against tenants in San Joaquin County. She previously served as a court commissioner in the Superior Court of San Joaquin County, Stockton Branch, for two years. Her private practice focused on civil litigation, successfully representing clients in jury and court trials.

Program Dates

This program will be presented twice - Tues., May 24, 2022 and Wed., June 1, 2022, with a maximum registration of 15 attendees. Please register for one date only.

MCLE Credit* =
1.0 hour of General Credit

Tues., May 24, 2022, OR
Wed., June 1, 2022
12:00 - 1:15 pm
In Person Presentation

San Joaquin County Bar Association
6 S. El Dorado Street, Ste 315
Stockton, CA 95202

SJCBA Members: $20
Non-SJCBA Members: $30
(Taco Bar Buffet & beverage included)

Register: sjcbar.org

This program is approved for the MCLE credit hours listed above by the State Bar of California.*